

Subject:

Elin Javakiani 2400 012268008

Date:

1/1/2020

Exercise: translate the last paragraph

It is obvious that human act can't be used in online with a large number of images. In this cases, it is desirable to have a calculation^{model} that can predict human judgment with acceptable accuracy and speed. the design of such a model is called computational act and it is one of the active fields in the field of interpretation processing. this proposal deals with one of the computing modes.